News about the safety of popular health & beauty brands

a project of Environmental Working Group

October is Breast Cancer, Psoriasis and Lupus Awareness month. trioSkincare extends support to clients, their families and friends by continuing to provide reputable resources on health and wellness. The Environmental Working Group has established a growing website to educate the public about low, medium and high risk ingredients and the violations, restrictions and warnings issued to product manufacturers. Take a moment to educate yourself and the ones you love on safer product choices by visiting www.ewg.org/reports/skindeep2 or just Google "Skin Deep Report".
